PHŒNIX MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. | JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:—

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone, and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $500,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a safe business.
8. It WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured—which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. It HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1868

GENERAL AMNESTY AND UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

Mr. C. C. Pool, of Pasquotank, who is a member of the so-called Convention, now in session in the Capitol, asserted, in the course of a few remarks with which he favored that body, on Friday last, that the people of North Carolina were ready for universal suffrage, but not for general amnesty.

When such a declaration is made by one who, from the ex cathedra and authoritative manner in which he speaks, must be supposed to be entirely conversant with the tone of public sentiment, and to possess the most commanding advantages for judging as to its temper, (!) it causes one to pause and think whether what he says be really so. Uncharitable people, who never heard of Mr. Pool before, may doubt his right to pronounce for the whole people, and question the oracular prerogative which he thus assumes; but surely he would not speak so wittingly and confidently, unless he was fortified by extended personal observation and an intimate knowledge of the people and their feelings. Therefore, but one question can arise: Whom does Mr. Pool consider the people?

Physiologists describe, in the books, as opthalmic disease, which sometimes afflicts people in a singular manner and produces curious results. The organs of vision become so peculiarly diseased that every object appears of the same hue,—whatever be the actual diversities of color presented.—Pope was describing something of the same sort, when he said

"All looks infected that th' infected spy,
As all looks yellow to the jaundiced eye."

Mr. Pool, evidently, has the black type of the malady. When looking out upon the world, from his elevated stand-point of observation, and at the inhabitants thereof, all nature and all people wear a sable aspect. The only people whom he recognizes are negroes and black-Radicals, and, of course, he thinks that they all want to vote and hold office, and don't want others to do the same thing, who might possibly be in their way. Mr. Pool is simply and naturally syllogizing from false premises, as many other philosophers have done before him.

But, seriously, who authorized Mr. Pool thus to speak for North Carolina? Leaving out the negroes, themselves, as being the parties apparently most interested, will he pretend to say that a majority, or a fourth part, or a tenth part, of the intelligent white freemen of North Carolina are in favor of conferring suffrage upon an ignorant, inferior and semi-barbarous race, and, at the same time, of disfranchising most of the statesmen and intelligent gentlemen, to whom they have hitherto looked up with confidence and pride? Will he slander the white people of North Carolina, by declaring, in his place, in this "so-called" Convention, that a majority of them would degrade themselves by voluntarily letting themselves down to the political level of the negro!—or that a majority of them are so filled with malevolence towards their fellow-citizens, that they would make them the vassals of their former slaves!

What Mr. Pool says of the people, we have no doubt, is true of the little faction of white destructives and demagogues, for which he assumes to speak. There is nothing too vindictive for them—nothing between them and the spoils which they would not remove and drag down. But what he says of the true people of North Carolina is a monstrous misrepresentation, for which Mr. Pool has no more warrant, than the "Convention," in which he is, has to claim to be a Convention called by the people of North Carolina!

"CONVENTION" ON SATURDAY.

The session was consumed pretty much in the discussion of the report of the Committee for the relief of the people. No action was taken, but the amendments proposed, and the debate, indicate a great variety of sentiment, among the Radicals of the body.

The Conservatives are ready to co-operate in any safe method, which can afford real relief to the people, but, being so few in number, they can propose nothing, with any hope of success. They, however, cannot assist the Radicals in any proposition for Buncombe, or any measure which is designed to coat over the bad features of a Constitution, utterly subversive of society and destructive to the future peace and prosperity of the State.

Some of the Radicals advocate utter repudiation of all private debts, if not public debts, but we take pleasure in stating, that such Radicals as Gen. Abbott, Col. Heaton, Mr. Jones, of Washington, and Hood, the negro delegate from Cumberland, took grounds, on Saturday, in opposition to anything like repudiation.

APPROPRIATE LEGISLATION.—Eppes, alo from Halifax, introduced the following resolution in the "so-called," a few days since, and asked its reference to the Committee on "Cities and Towns:"

Resolved, That all real estate shall be taxed in accordance to its value throughout the State; and that horses, mules, oxen, and other horned cattle, be taxed for half their value,—except stallions and jacksses, which shall be taxed at full value.

After two or three days solemn deliberation, befitting "de gravity" of the subject, the Committee on "Cities and Towns," through Mr. Tourgee, the Chairman, mildly reported that they rather thought that the matter did not come within their province. We think so, too; but why not go into Committee of the Whole on Eppes' resolution?

THE PROPOSED RELIEF.

The Committee on Relief, in the Convention, reported a proviso, which was discussed on Saturday, to be appended to the article of the Constitution on the Judiciary, (which article, in the main, is unobjectionable,) containing the following noticeable points:

It proposes to incorporate into the Constitution a provision ousting the jurisdiction of the Courts on contracts made and entered into prior to the 1st day of May, 1865, (except in the case of public officers, executors, administrators, guardians, trustees and others, acting in a fiduciary capacity, and their sureties, founded upon an appropriation, to their own use, of money or other property officially received by them, or other fraudulent breach of trust; except also, on notes given for the purchase of land,) unless before, or at the time of commencing the suit, the plaintiff shall, by deed or record, stipulate that, if the debtor shall, at the first term of the Court, pay to the plaintiff the one-tenth part of the sum of the principal and interest up to the 1st day of January, 1868, and costs, and shall annually, for nine years thereafter, pay as aforesaid, a like sum, that he, the said plaintiff, will accept such payments in full satisfaction and discharge of the demand sued for.

It also applies to any action founded on any bond, &c., is renewal of any contract made prior to the 1st of May, 1865.

If the defendant, on oath, denies that he owes the sum demanded, or any portion of it, then the Court shall have jurisdiction of the sum denied, and it shall proceed to try and determine the suit as if brought for that portion of the claim only. As to the portion of the claim not denied by him, the defendant will be entitled to the benefit of the provisions aforesaid.

If the defendant shall fail to pay the costs and the one-tenth annually, as provided for, the plaintiff shall be entitled, immediately, to judgment and execution for such tenth.

No lien, which the plaintiff shall have on the day when the Constitution shall go into effect, is impaired.

The general provisions of the above might not meet with serious objection, although we fear that the result will be, on the smaller claims—for instance, those under one hundred dollars—that the costs will be increased out of proportion to the amount sued for; and many persons holding the larger claims—those over five hundred dollars—will become citizens of other States in order to avoid the delays of this ordinance, and avail themselves of the Federal Courts.

The paragraph next before the last is in these words: "And if such defendant shall, at any time, fail to pay the costs and the one-tenth annually, as herein provided for, the plaintiff shall be entitled immediately to judgment and process of execution for such tenth."

This paragraph is defective. It is apparent that the word "and," which we have italicised, was intended for "or," and reading it with the correction even, would not perfect the paragraph; for, even then, if the defendant paid the tenth, leaving the costs unpaid, it would be the duty of the Court to enter up judgment for such "tenth," which had already been paid, and not for the costs, which had not been paid.

The views presented in the discussion on Saturday, as well as the amendments proposed, leave us in great doubt as to what will be the final character of the proviso. We should not be surprised if the idea of relief should be abandoned, and that of utter repudiation should prevail.

THE SHOE BEGINS TO PINCH.

Intolerable as the pecuniary condition of things may be in the South, which, though traceable to some extent to the baleful effects of the war, has been greatly augmented by Radical misrule and reconstruction since, it is very clear that the North is beginning to share some of the consequences of ill-advised and partizan reconstruction.

The New York Herald, noticing the failures of the month of January, says: "Business seems to have again lost all confidence in itself, and for the month of January thus far failures have increased from week to week in rather dangerous progression. The list of four weeks, ending January 25, exhibits an aggregate liability of over $8,000,000, of which assets will cover about one-fourth."

The N. Y. Times, though blind in a great measure to the causes which continue to hamper Southern enterprise and industry, begins to see that the reaction upon the North must also be fatal. It says:

"The losses and hardships are, however, not confined to the South. The prostration of its industry reacts upon the Northern people. The failure and partial and temporary abandonment of its great staple crop fell upon Northern industry and trade. It is the fashion, we know, to shout that King Cotton is dethroned, by way of proving one's loyalty to the Union. But this is simply absurd. The country may rejoice in its emancipation from the power which cotton formerly wielded over its political concerns, but it has a deep and lasting interest in the return of cotton to its old place as the great regulator of our foreign commerce."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

SATURDAY, Feb. 1, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Brewer.

A communication was received from Gen. Canby, in answer to the resolution requesting a statement of the whole number of votes cast in the election for candidates to this Convention. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Rodman presented a memorial from Hyde county, which was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

Mr. Abbott stated that the Committee on Finance had not been able to arrive at a conclusion in regard to negotiating a loan of $10,000 yet, but hoped to be able to present a definite report, on Monday next.

Mr. Sweet presented a majority report from the Committee on "Legislature."—Ordered to be printed, together with an accompanying minority report.

Mr. Rodman, a report from the Committee on Judiciary, to whom was referred the application for divorce between D. C. Wilson and Nancy Wilson, recommending that the divorce be granted, if the Convention should determine to consider private matters. He offered an ordinance, as a part of the report, in order that the sense of the Convention, in regard to the matter, might be had.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, read from the Revised Code in regard to such matters, and took grounds against the report, as it was against the policy of the law of the State. No reason to grant divorces in such a light manner had been set forth in the petition for such a proceeding. The application should have been made to the Courts of Law. He moved to indefinitely postpone the whole matter. Carried.

Mr. Rodman, from the Judiciary Committee, to whom was referred Mr. Tourgee's resolution in regard to costs in criminal cases, reported an article to the Constitution that no one shall be made to pay cost in Courts, except for counsel, until found guilty. Laid over, to be considered with the other reports of that Committee.

Mr. Peterson, a resolution providing agencies in each county to purchase lands, for the benefit of actual settlers. Referred.

Mr. Renfrow, an ordinance for the protection of laborers. Referred.

Mr. Congleton, a resolution to raise a Select Committee of eight to negotiate a loan with Congress of $10,000 for educational purposes, to provide homes for the homeless, and to develope our agricultural resources. Made the special order for Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Ragland, a resolution requesting the Committee, appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, to ascertain if bonds and notes, given since 1st. May, 1865, and notes renewed prior to that time, are subject to General Order, No. 64. Rules suspended and resolution adopted.

Williamson, (negro,) a resolution asking Congress to loan the State from one to three millions of dollars, for agricultural purposes. Referred.

SPECIAL ORDER—RELIEF BILL.

The question was upon Mr. Watts' amendment. He withdrew it in favor of the amendment of Mr. Welker, (which deprives the Courts of jurisdiction over all cases of contract or debt, except for labor performed, since, as well as before, May 1, 1865.)

Mr. Graham, of Orange, was opposed to the measure. He wished to substitute the Ordinance of Convention, of 1865, with the necessary changes.

Mr. Watts said he had been misunderstood by the Reporter of the Sentinel, on last Wednesday. He only argued that the Convention had the power to repudiate, not that he advocated repudiation. But he wished for relief for the people now, temporarily, and permanent relief, when the Constitution was adopted.

Mr. Abbott favored the bill, as reported by Comuittee, and was opposed to the amendment.

Mr. Pool next discussed the measure, and, during his remarks, stated that the gentlemen who had argued that North Carolina was not a State were in error. North Carolina was a State, but, by the rebellion, she had lost every constitutional right, but still, she had never lost her constitutional obligations. The present ordinance was an unconstitutional measure, for it interfered with private contracts. He did not believe the Convention had a right to go beyond the matters for which they had been assembled here. He gave notice he would soon introduce a minority report, which he hoped the Convention would adopt, as it would contain such relief as he thought this body could legally and properly give.

Mr. Tourgee said that the opposition to this amendment arose solely, that aid might be given to a corporation that had gone into debt, since 1865, (the Charlotte, Wilmington and Rutherford Railroad,) and, in discussing the constitutionality of the measure, declared that the State of North Carolina, at the close of the war, was left simply in a territorial condition.

Mr. Abbott asked the gentleman if everything that been done by those State governments was void, marriages, wills, &c.

Mr. Tourgee replied that whatever has been done in these States, from 1861 to 1867, that depended for its validity upon recognition from an established government, was null and void.

Mr. Durham wished to know if the Courts of law, that had condemned criminals to death, had been guilty of murder.

Mr. Tourgee substantially replied, yes!—He proceeded in his remarks for some time and closed by expressing the hope that men outside of its provisions would also be allowed the benefits of the ordinance.

Mr. Abbott again spoke in opposition to the amendment, and said that while he would vote for a proper and judicious relief, and for the bill, as reported by the Committee, still; as amended, it would entail ruin upon all of our industrial pursuits.

Mr. Heaton concurred with Mr. Abbott, and, though he did not entirely agree with the provisions of the bill, yet, in his judgment, it did not come in conflict with the authority of the Constitution; which he held to be the supreme law, in regard to the repudiation of private contracts. To him the idea of repudiation was odious, and when that matter came up before the Convention, he would ask to be heard fully, in opposition to such measure.

Mr. Fullings did not think this Convention had a right to legislate in favor of one class of people, to the exclusion of the other.—He was opposed to all stay laws, and thought if the one existing at present had been swept out of existence, at the close of the war, the country, generally, would have been in a more prosperous condition. He hoped that if any stay law is to be passed, Mr. Welker's amendment would prevail.—He did not wish to be understood as favoring repudiation. He was opposed to repudiation and all stay laws, but if any was to be passed, he wanted a measure that would protect the whole people.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, was opposed to paying debts. Repudiation was inevitable. There was no use in trying to get around it; we must face the music. With some allusion to shylarks, he closed.

Mr. Parker was opposed to staying the collection of new debts, but thought that with debts contracted upon the faith of property, that had ceased to be properly, a little indulgence should be granted.

Mr. Congleton was in favor of staying all debts, or refusing to stay any.

Hood, (negro,) thought the ordinance, as reported, objectionable, but the amendment would carry universal distress over the country, and, instead of giving relief, it would give misery and wretchedness. He thought that Mr. Pool should be allowed time to bring in the minority report. It might obviate all the present difficulties.—At all events, more time would be given for this most important question.

Mr. May thought the conflicting arguments of each were sufficient evidence that everybody that this body was utterly unprepared to act wisely, safely and soundly, and suggested the propriety of postponing this question until some future time, when the matter could be more carefully considered.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, agreed to the postponement of the question, but the time they spent here in discussion was also a matter to be taken into consideration; and he would agree to a postponement, if it could be done so as not to interfere with the regular business of the Convention in Constitution making. These special orders were becoming too frequent.

Mr. J. then proceeded to discuss the measure at some length, substantially repeating his argument of Wednesday last. In the course of his remarks he said that the measure under consideration was only the entering wedge to something more serious. Mr. Rodman had already a printed document on the desks, that proposed a still stronger dose, as he was apprehensive that the first ordinance would have its back-bone taken out. He (Mr. J.) wished to forewarn the Convention of this outrageous design to introduce an unheard of innovation upon the organic law of the land. He proceeded to describe the dire effects that the adoption of such a measure would have upon the people and upon the credit of the State.—The best stay law that he knew of was no stay law at all; let the people, among themselves, compromise their debts.

Mr. Jones closed by offering the following substitute for the whole matter:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the whole subject of old debts, prior to the 1st of May, 1865, be left to the civil Courts, subject to such orders as the General in command may deem advisable, to relieve property from execution.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) wanted relief, but thought more time was necessary for consideration, as many were in doubt as to what course should be most properly pursued. Did not think it should be pressed to a vote to-day. But, at the proper time, a relief bill should be adopted, and, if that was not done, the people would very properly vote the Constitution down. He moved to postpone the whole matter until Wednesday next, but withdrew, to allow Mr. Graham, of Orange, an opportunity to read a substitute, which he should offer when the matter came up again.

Mr. Graham then read his substitute, which will be given, when the measure is again discussed.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) renewed his motion to postpone until Wednesday next; and it was agreed to.

Mr. Abbott moved to make his ordinance, in regard to the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford R. R., the special order for Monday next. Agreed to.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until Monday next, at 11 o'clock.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN FRANKLIN.

In accordance with previous notice, a meeting of the citizens of Franklin County was held in the Court House at Louisburg, on Thursday, the 30th. Jan.

On motion of Gen. P. B. Hawkins, Jones Fuller, Esq., was called to the chair, who explained the object of the meeting in a short, well timed speech.

After which, upon motion of Col. W. F. Green, C. M. Cooke was appointed Secretary.

On motion of Capt. J. J. Davis, a Committee of three were appointed by the Chairman, consisting of Capt. J. J. Davis, Col. W. F. Green and Allen C. Perry, to prepare and report resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

The Committee, after a short interval, through their Chairman, Capt. J. J. Davis, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That all free government being founded in the consent of the governed, a Union restored upon any principle, that will not command the consent, confidence and affections of the governed, must be a Union preserved by force on the one side, or fear on the other. Such a Union was never contemplated by our fathers, is incompatible with free government, can be desired only by those who would be tyrants or the tools of tyrants, and submitted to by those willing to be slaves; and that we invoke the genius of liberty and the spirit of compromise to save us from degrading requirements, and restore us to our place in the Union, as an equal among equals. To such a Union we earnestly desire to be restored, and to this end we beseech the co-operation of all good and patriotic men everywhere.

Resolved, That the pending proposition to establish military supremacy over the South, giving absolute, undefined, despotic power to one man, (however wise, patriotic and good that man be,) can only be regarded with fearful apprehension, and should at once arrest the attention of all patriotic men, and arouse the true people of the North to a sense of the perils impending over their institutions.

Resolved, That from the foundation of the government, the question of suffrage has been regarded as exclusively within the province of the State; and that we regard unrestricted negro suffrage, as fraught with evil and with great danger to our institutions. We deem it unkind, illiberal and inconsistent in the people of the North to force upon us a system of suffrage, which they themselves reject as dangerous or degrading. And that, while far from entertaining unkind feelings to the emancipated slaves, and while we know that the people of the South, with whom they lived in peace, plenty and happiness, and attained to the highest development, moral and intellectual, known to their race, are their wisest and truest friends; yet we can but regard, with painful apprehension, the growing feeling of alienation which is being manifested, on the part of the negro, toward the white people of the South, a feeling not natural to them, but implanted, fostered and encouraged by designing white men, many of them not natives or even residents of the South, for selfish and partisan purposes, and which, if not stayed, may result in consequences too fearful to contemplate.

Resolved, That we heartily approve the call for a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to assemble at Raleigh on the 5th. of February, and that the Chairman of this meeting appoint 30 delegates to represent Franklin County in said Convention.

[Some of this excellent series of resolutions, we have been compelled to exclude, for the want of space.]

After a soul stirring and patriotic speech by Capt. J. J. Davis, the resolutions were, on motion of William A. Eaton, unanimously adopted.

The Chairman, then, in accordance with the last resolution, appointed the delegates, (whose names we are compelled to omit.)

On motion, it was ordered that the proceedings of this meeting be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel, with a request that they be published.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

ROYAL PAY FOR NEGRO LEGISLATORS.

The negro Reconstruction Convention of South Carolina forms a high estimate of its services. The Sambos who used to be glad to get a few dollars a month for working on the cotton or rice plantations have fixed their pay as constitution makers at eleven dollars a day and twenty cents mileage.—Our white Congressmen, who get eight dollars a day, will envy these happy blacks.—When the darkies come to Congress they will undoubtedly endeavor to raise the dignity and emoluments of our national legislators in the same proportion. If a negro member of a State Convention be worth eleven dollars a day, what ought a negro Congressman to get? Thirty dollars a day at least. How astonished these South Carolina negroes must be with their extraordinary change of fortune! They can hardly realize whether they stand on their heads or heels. To cap the climax of their ridiculous presumption, they should have proposed to pay the white members of the Convention half what they get themselves; and that, after all, would only be somewhat in proportion to the estimate in which the two races are held in the South just now. A white man may be nearly half as good as a negro.—N. Y. Herald.

THE WHISKEY TAX TO STAND AT $2.—The Committee of Ways and Means have decided not to reduce the Whiskey Tax. This means a loss, to the people of not less than $50,000,000 a year.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

TERMS MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Dan Castello: The Big Show, Feb. 10th and 11th.

The third session of Pleasant Hill Female Academy, Granville, will commence on Monday next, 10th inst. It is represented to be an excellent institution.

Maryland Hams, Lard, Cheese, Pickles, Sauces, Crackers, Canned Fruits, No. 1 Family Flour, &c: At Tonnoffski's, Fayetteville Street.

Tin Ware—A North Carolina Enterprise: We invite especial attention to the advertisement of our friend, E. H. Pogue, Hillsboro', N. C.

Green Apples, White Meal and Corn: W. H. Jones & Co.

Night Sentinels: W. H. Jones & Co.—Call and see this wonderful contrivance.

THE DRAMATIC COMPANY.—Sargent continues to please the play-going public,—nightly meeting with great success. To-night an unusually pleasing programme, for the benefit of Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, is offered.

BAKER'S ⋈ ROADS.—A subscriber at Baker's ⋈ Roads would like to know, why the Weekly Sentinel does not get to that office but once a fortnight. We should be very glad to know the cause. Can any of the Post Office men on the route tell us? If not, we shall enquire of Dr. Jobe.

NORTHERN GENTLEMEN, travelling through the South, at this season, are particularly requested to take Raleigh en route. They will be well repaid, in entertainment, for a day's sojourn. Blair will accommodate them, in fine style, at the Yarborough; and we want them to look in on our "so called." We understand that the scene, on Friday, especially, when the Reportorial question was again up, was equal in confusion to a bear-garden and in the use of invectives to the fish-market. Jeemes Harris and the "Pilgrim" were especially excited.

READY MADE CLOTHING.—We had a visit, on Saturday, from Mr. T. T. Best, connected with the house of Messrs. P. A. Wilson & Co., Winston, N. C., who exhibited to us some beautiful specimens of ready-made clothing, manufactured at their establishment, from the excellent fabrics, jeans and cassimeres, made at the well known Factory of H. W. Fries, Esq., at Salem.

These goods are equal, in all respects, to any thing we have seen from the Northern markets. Indeed, the goods and the manufacture are much superior to most of the Northern made goods. Messrs. Wilson & Co., we are glad to see, are the pioneers in this State, in the ready-made clothing line, —a business which we have long desired to see introduced in the State. More than this, they are selling them, at wholesale prices, as cheap or cheaper than they can be bought North.

We rejoice at the spirit of enterprise manifested by our citizens at Salem, Winston, Thomasville and Charlotte. The ready made clothing business might, we judge, be introduced at Charlotte, also, in the manufacture of the excellent goods made at Rock Island Factory. This business, properly managed, might give profitable employment to a large number of females and sewing machines. Let the ball keep rolling. North Carolina has the facilities for becoming one of the most leading manufacturing, mining and agricultural States of the South.

THE CIRCUS.—We need not call attention to Dan Castello's announcement, in another column. It speaks for itself. The Wilmington Journal, speaking of its appearance and performances in that City, says:

"The procession was a very lengthy one, and, as was to be expected, became the wonder for the time being, attracting an immense crowd wherever it went and causing more excitement than has been known here for some time. It was really a sight worth witnessing, and the attention it attracted fully deserving.

At night, beneath the spacious pavilion, a large crowd was collected, notwithstanding the weather. The animals on exhibition, including the elephant, were the centre of attraction and observation until the grand entree. With this every one was perfectly carried away, and as feat followed feat in rapid succession, the lovers of the circus, (which applies to all, old and young, large and small,) were in perfect ecstacies of delight. The equestrian performances were good, and some of them wonderful and remarkable, as also were those of the acrobats and gymnasts. At this late hour we cannot allude to the performances in detail; but suffice it to say that Dan Castello's Circus is even better than when it last appeared here. It is now one of the first in the country and well worth seeing."

BISHOP ATKINSON lectures this (Monday) night, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. His subject is "Personal Impressions of the Distinguished Orators of England."

The place will be made known by posters.

We hope to see such an attendance of our citizens, as will redound to the credit of the community. We need not add that the great ability of the Lecturer, and the nature of his subject, promise a rare intellectual treat.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of a visit, on Saturday, from Capt. Wm. Biggs, Editor of that sterling paper, the Tarboro' Southerner. We are glad to learn that the Southerner is flourishing, which speaks well for the people of Edgecombe. The Capt. has come to take a peep at the Menagerie, and will doubtless give the public some racy impressions.

WE ARE pleased to learn that Governor Worth's health has greatly improved within a day or two past. He is not yet, however, able to attend the Executive Office.

IT is understood that General Canby will visit this City, in the course of a few days. He has not, heretofore, since his assignment to the District, we believe, visited North Carolina.

CLOVER AND GRASSES.—We have on hand an excellent article upon the subject of the cultivation of Clover and Grasses, from the pen of an experienced and intelligent gentleman in the Western part of the State, which we will take pleasure in giving to our readers, in the course of a day or two.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Newbern Herald, in copying, from the Sentinel, a day's proceedings in the so called, says, pithily:

"Thirteen hundred dollars worth of the North Carolina Nigger Constitution will be found in our columns this morning. It's interesting, dirt cheap and unpaid for."

——The Newbern Republican shoots a poisoned arrow at Maj. Van Horn, late Commandant of the Post of Newbern, on occasion of his leaving that City. The Journal of Commerce says that the reason of the Republican's spite is, that Major Van H., and his company, did not forget their color and fall at the feet of Cuffee—the Radical idol. Their only offence was a preference for their own race.

——The Concord Press urges upon the delegates appointed from Cabarrus the necessity of a full attendance at the Conservative State Convention, which meets in this City, on Wednesday. We shall be glad to see a number of the citizens of that sterling county here.

ITEMS.

Senators Sherman and Fessenden are said to be very hostile to each other, and are not on speaking terms. Yet they, with the rest of the Radicals, are for themselves against the world. When the leaders all fall out with each other, a thing not unlikely, as they all seem to have the Presidency in view, there will be some chance for the peace of the country. "When rogues fall out, honest men will get their dues."

A Radical Senator in Congress, the other day, on being remonstrated with, in regard to the destructive character of their legislation, coolly replied, "You haven't seen half yet." Just so. The "Roundheads" are just beginning.

Mrs. E. A. Pollard, who shot a dentist in Baltimore, the other day, is still in prison. Her husband is in New York and has not yet come to her assistance. Perhaps, E. A. thinks she needs taming.

The attempt to unite the two wings of the New York Radicals, the straight outs and the Conservative Radicals, has failed.

The lower House of the New Jersey Legislature has instructed the members of Congress, from that State, to vote against the supplemental reconstruction acts.

The Democratic Convention of Blair Co., Pa., has instructed the delegates to the State Convention, to vote for Gen. Hancock, as a candidate for the Presidency.

Hon. Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, is evidently the choice of the North Western Democracy for the Presidency.

THE FREEDMEN.—We never let an opportunity pass, when we meet a friend from any of the surrounding counties of Virginia, or North Carolina, to enquire into the status of the freedmen. What are they doing, and what is the prospect in the future?

We have recently met with several planters from the counties of Hyde, Gates, Hertford and Edgecombe, and the information gathered from them leads us to believe that the freedmen in that section are rapidly coming to the conclusion that they are not capable of farming on their own account, but say that they need some one to manage for them.

In the counties of Hertford, Gates and Edgecombe, many of the freedmen are going about begging for employment. Wages have been reduced in all these counties, and a stout, able-bodied man commands from $5 to $6 per month, and boys and women in proportion. The high price of cotton, at the close of the war, led our planters to pay such exorbitant prices for labor, as nearly rendered bankrupt the entire class.

By way of showing our readers the working of the tenant system, we give below the results of one year's work on one of the best farms in North Carolina. The farm is located in the finest corn growing region of the State and contains 470 acres of cleared land, which was rented out on shares last season to eighteen tenants, twelve whites and six black, they getting two-thirds of the crop of corn, the landlord one-third. It was rented in parcels of from twenty to seventy acres, the negroes taking the smaller lots.

It is proper to say that last year was not a good corn year in that section. Ordinarily, this land, properly cultivated, will bring easily eight barrels of corn to the acre, which would give us 3,760 barrels.

In this instance the landlord got 275 barrels, and of course, the tenants got 550 barrels —making in all 825 barrels, or less than two barrels of corn to the acre.

Some few of the whites did reasonably well; but, in every instance, the black man made a miserable failure, by not working his crop.—Norfolk Journal.

Snow to the depth of twelve inches has fallen in several sections of Texas.

For the Sentinel.

"OUR BENEFACTORS."

(Rel. paper.)

Our glorious Convention is a horse of a different color. It is indeed a horse of divers colors. That sorry concern of 1835 was all pretty much of a sort. Leastwise, they were all so obscure, that their several idiosyncracies have escaped the antiquarian researches of the fusty old fogies who go about the graveyards, like old Mortality, in the vain and malicious attempt to deepen and perpetuate disagreeable memories of the past.

When the best people that the world ever saw determined to spread their blessings over this benighted region, their first mission was to extend the privilege, so satisfactory to themselves, of "working and praying, sitting on hard benches, and listening to painful preachers ad libitum—yea even unto thirty-seventhly, if the spirit so willed it." Old John Brown, whose spirit is still "marching on," as we are told in an exquisite ditty, sung in the army sometimes with great and patriotic delight, was an eminent missionary sent to accomplish the blessed work,—backed up by "such mystic practicalism, such niggard geniality, such calculating fanaticism, such cast-iron enthusiasm, such unwilling humor and such close-fisted generosity, as the earth never saw before." So says one of their own great sketchers of Yankee enthusiasm and Yankee character. "Thrift," he continues, "was the first lesson in their new book, pointed out, letter after letter, by the lean finger of the hard school master, necessity. Little were they like the plump, rosy gilled Englishmen whom they left behind—but a hard faced, atrabilarious, earnest-eyed race, stiff from long wrestling with the Lord in prayer, who had taught Satan to dread the new Puritan hug;—full of expedients, half-master of all trades, inventive in all but the beautiful, full of shifts, yet not capable of comfort—long-animous, good at patching, not so careful for what is best, as for what will do, each with a clasp to his purse and a button to his pocket, etc., etc." Such, in the language of one of themselves, is the very amiable and exemplary character which was to be impressed on the heathen inhabitants of these ten lost and abandoned States. To accomplish this mission was no easy talk—but in that energetic people, whether right or wrong, "there is no such word as fail." Insensible, themselves, to scorn, caring but little for contempt, relying on physical strength alone, they can always either find, or ingeniously make, a way to accomplish whatever they wish.

It is a sad story how the South was baited and worried for many long years, until its patience became exhausted, and in its despair it rushed to arms—the last resort not only of Kings, but of the wretched and oppressed, of all peoples, as well

Sadder still is the story of the progress of famine and fire and sword over our fairest fields and the more than Vandal devastation that marked its path.

Saddest of all to see a great and triumphant nation, proudly claiming all its share of the civilization of the age, having subdued and humbled to its feet, and totally disarmed, this wretched people—then, whet their swords anew with diabolical glee, in utter scorn of the good old British magnanimity which but

"———— little difference spied

So thought we all for a season—and we sighed over our desolated hearth stones, and our ruined fortunes. Short sighted mortals are we, and awfully led astray by James Russell Lowell, in his characterization of that large hearted people. Little did we, in our agony, dream that these were all "blessings in disguise," paternal chastenings by the best people the world ever saw, and all for our own good; the fond caresses of the kindest of parents—the affectionate spankings, as it were, of love.—Little dreamed we, that this is the usual way (among that singular people—our gracious "benefactors"—the best that the world ever saw—and the kindest and purest) of bringing wanderers and "wayward sisters" home. Home! Sweet home! We are all "going home," as was said and sung in ecstacy some two years ago—going to receive our welcome back to the paternal mansion. These seemingly unaccountable blessings in disguise, are only premonitory symptoms of our regeneration. We shall all be born again, by and bye—aye and bless the presiding men-midwives, (Dr. Bowels inclusive,) who are so sleeplessly watching over our first appearance on the new stage of existence. This new birth has already happened to some, rather prematurely, indeed, in some instances. But the truly loyal among us have witnessed wonderful things. The apocalyptical visions were a baby to the golden dreams, that brighten their paths.

Eight dollars per day, and a liberal mileage, is only a taste. Five thousand a year, besides official "pickings and stealings," are good. They know, that the best way of spreading the law of love, is "by fear," and they have also learned the salutary and paying lesson,

"To serve with pride, and boast the yoke they wear."

Loyalty has learned even to talk through the nose with edification,—and to tickle old brindle by calling her keow. Some of our specially loyal think of starting a nutmeg machine, driven by an engine of forty horse power,—which will turn out four thousand good merchantable nutmegs in thirty-five minutes; and a small side machine may be also attached, which will manufacture fifty bushels of pumpkin seed per diem, at a small additional cost. Some of the trumpet noted gentlemen have kindly offered to sell all the products,—and go snacks with these enterprising and hopeful loyalists—only requiring of the latter to advance the requisite funds.

But the greatest of these blessings in disguise is that precious Convention, now gracing one of the Capitol chambers. Of this goodly assemblage, hereafter.

UNIVERSALITY OF FREE MASONRY.—We clip the following from an exchange, as exemplifying the truth of the caption to this paragraph. It will be interesting not only to the brethren, but to the general reader.—It is the testimony of Bro. Capt. Samuel Whiting:

"I have now, in my mind, a beautiful illustration of the strength of Masonic love which came under my own observation during my sailor career.

"In 1865, while attached to one of the New York clipper Indiamen, and lying in the sickly seaport of Batavia, in the island of Java, I was stricken down by one of the terrible malarial fevers of that torrid clime.

"One afternoon, while lying at my hotel, sick nearly unto death, and longing for a friendly voice or glance, my door was suddenly opened; and I saw Framjee Hormusjee Setna, one of the wealthiest Parsee merchants of Batavia, approaching me under the due guard and sign of a Master Mason. He sat down by my side, kindly took my fevered hand in his, and assured me that I was not a stranger in the land, but a brother and a friend. His Arab servant followed him, bearing on his head a tray filled with the rarest fruits and delicacies of that prolific clime, and he was left with me to attend to my wants, his master giving him strict injunctions to be faithful to his charge."

TELEGRAPHIC.

Monday Morning Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, P. M.

The Attorney General's opinion, regarding the sale of Dismal Swamp stock, is, in effect, that the United States are simply Stockholders, and the sale would be a transfer of personal property.—The Attorney General is at a loss to know how the stock can be sold, with guarantee from purchasers, that the canal shall be kept open. The sale, under the recent acts of Congress, is therefore postponed.

The Ways and Means Committee have agreed to the Senate amendments to the whiskey metre bill, and it will doubtless pass the House.

This morning's World has the following:

"WASHINGTON, Jan. 31, 1868.

President Johnson is to declare to Great Britain the American willmaboss. The turgiversation of Secretary Seward is of avail no more. Another and higher authority has determined upon the course which is to be pursued in respect to the claim of the United States upon Great Britain.—I am authorized to state, most confidently and decisively, that the legitimate demands, which have been too meekly urged by the Secretary of State upon the British Cabinet, are to be enforced at whatever hazard. The new British Minister, Mr. Thornton, will probably be presented to President Johnson on Tuesday.

Although the addresses, which are to be exchanged between the President and Trustees, may be guarded and serene, the fact yet remains that a speedy and satisfactory response must be made by the British government to the ultimatum of the Executive of the United States, or else a declaration of war against Great Britian must inevitably ensue."

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, P. M.

SENATE.—No session.

HOUSE.—The President was asked whether he had appointed certain special agents as Postmasters, who had been rejected by the Senate, and under what law such appointments were made.—

John Young Brown's case was resumed. Beck advocating his admission. He denied that the House had a right to extend enquiries beyond the Constitution's prescriptions. If the member elected took the oath, he had the right to a seat, and charges of disloyalty should come up afterwards, when, if guilty, two thirds can expel him. No action was taken. Postponed to Monday. Adjourned.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Feb 1, P. M.

The Committee on Internal Improvements reported a clause, directing the Legislature to provide for the exchange of State interest in internal improvements for bonds of the State.

The Committee on Banks reported in favor of prohibiting the Legislature granting charters to corporations who discount paper at unlawful rates of interest. Also prohibiting persons, who do so, from holding State offices.

Spirits Turpentine 53. Rosin advanced.—Strained and No 2, 2,50. Tar firm, 2,10.

A contribution box in a Portland church received two packages of horse-railroad tickets last Sunday, marked Acts iii, v. 6: "Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have I give thee."

The retail dry good dealers in New York, following the example of the wholesale houses, on Tuesday reduced the prices of their best silks twenty-five cents per yard.

The Rev. James Gibbons, of the Baltimore cathedral, we perceive it stated, has been confirmed by His Holiness, and will soon be consecrated and placed in charge of the bishopric of North Carolina.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of five hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judge may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
